Participants may enrol in more than one Competition, Sections, Subsections, Categories or send more scores, paying each registration fee.

- V - Juries will be formed by prominent musicians. The organization is not liable for changes to the jury members due to force majeure.

If a jury member has a kin relationship with a competitor and/or if he/she has been teaching a competitor in the last three years, he/she must refrain from voting for that musician. This abstention will be mentioned on the minutes.

The organization will ask every jury member to declare his personal position towards the participants.

- VI - Each exam, action, judgment and decision of the jury will be recorded in the minutes and will be approved and signed by the President or his/her representative. The minutes are public and can be viewed in the Competition secretarial office.

The decision of the juries is final and irrevocable. It will be expressed in hundredths and adopted by unanimity after discussion in other words according to the arithmetic mean of the single votes, with exclusion of the highest and the lowest if divergent more than 3/100 from the nearest vote.

Unless explicitly granted by the Artistic Director, the minimum score of each jury member for the best rated candidate may not be less than 90/100, and the scoring gap between two candidates may not be such as to determine the non-awarding of prizes.

The Artistic Director can reserve the right to round off the score to the nearest half number.

The juries can reserve the right to award ex-aequo prizes, or not to give any, in case of insufficient merit.

The "First Absolute Classified" is intended as the candidate with the highest score among those who will get at least 95/100.

SPECIFIC RULES FOR THE PROFESSIONAL PERFORMANCE PRIZES

Concerning the Silvio Bengalli Piano Prize, in the Eliminary Round each jury member will give only a judgement of eligibility for the next Round. The competitors who obtain at least 2/3 of passes will be admitted to the next Round. The jury will then evaluate the ones that have reached a simple majority and others deserving special consideration.

In the Final Round the vote shall be expressed in hundredths, with exclusion of the highest and the lowest. In the case where the voters were less than seven, the highest and/or lowest will be excluded only if diverging more than 3/100 from the nearest vote, unless this does not entail significant changes in the relative position ranking.

The three competitors with the highest scores, in any case not lower than 95/100, 90/100 and 85/100 respectively, will be considered First, Second and Third Prize.

To be granted the First Prize the competitor must not only have at least a score of 95/100 but also the majority of the jury members must have put the competitor in first place. If only one of the conditions is met (average score of at least 95/100 or the majority vote of the jury members), or in the event that the average of the candidate's positions is not less than 1.5 discarding the worst vote, the First Prize could also be granted by the qualified majority of 2/3 of the jury members.

The First Prize is indivisible. In the case of ex-aequo, the prize will be awarded to the youngest competitor.

In the final ranking, the Prizes which have not been awarded shall also be taken into consideration.

In order to facilitate the awarding of prizes, the voting procedures in the Final Round may be modified and/or integrated on the joint proposal of the jury members and the Artistic Director.

- VII - All prizes are subject to tax withholding and will be paid by bank transfer.

Special scholarships and concerts might be assigned by the Artistic Director.

In the case of engagements for concerts, the fee includes travel expenses and can be integrated by the organizers. The organizers will also cover the accommodation and meals costs.

All the scholarships for specialization courses are referred to annual courses at institutions of higher education identified by the Artistic Direction and will cover part of the course fee.

The publications, by Edizioni Tetracordo, the public performances and the commissions to the winners of the Egidio Carella Composition Competition will be free of charge.

Concerning the concerts and performances managed by the Val Tidone Musica Foundation, their programming is subject to the realization of the Val Tidone Festival and the financing of the related branch of project.

Concerning the concerts offered by third parties, the organization will provide only a contact with/between the artists and the organizers. For those performances separate contracts will be signed. Whenever possible, the concerts will be organized on tour

Regarding the above-mentioned concerts and scholarships, negotiations are underway with the following institutions:

Fondazione Val Tidone Musica / Val Tidone Festival
Fondazione Teatri / Teatro Municipale di Piacenza
Fondazione Tetracordo ETS / Accademia del Ridotto
Mihail Jora Philharmonic Orchestra – Bacau (Romania)

- VIII - Each competitor must report to the competition venue, with an ID Card and the receipt of payment of the registration fee, at a specified time and day, which will be communicated in due course by the organizers.

The calendar of the Val Tidone International Music Competitions will be available and published on the www.valtidone-competitions.com website by June 15.

- IX - All the auditions are public.

The music sheets of the performed pieces must be presented to the jury before the Competition in the manner communicated by the Organization.

Transcriptions are admitted as well as the performance of single movements for time reasons.

The jury may interrupt the performance, should the competitor exceed the maximum duration time stated in the Rules, as well as listen to the competitors again in order to express their vote.

For each competition, the organization shall provide one piano. In addition, some rooms will be set up with pianos for rehearsal.

The organization will not provide music stands.

- X - The winners [meaning the three highest ranking] of the Silvio Bengalli Piano Prize have - under penalty of forfeiting their prize and being disqualified - to play at the evening gala of the Val Tidone International Music Competitions.

The winners of the other Competitions be awarded separately.

The Artistic Director, under special circumstances, may award the non-absolute First Classified, the Second and the Third Classified prizes at the end of the audition.

During the Competitions it is possible to collect the participation Diplomas at any moment.

- XI - Participants accept that the Organization may produce and broadcast videos, audio recordings or take photographs. These rights shall be granted free of charge as part of participation in the Competitions.
